OLD BUSINESS

The Issaquah Sportsmen's Club is very interested in the "old" club house trailer from Seattle Trap & Skeet club. They are gathering the required permit for the move-in. In exchange for this structure, Seattle T & S would like a metal shipping container for a storage building. The cost should be about $500. (2 bedroom, 2 bath structure. It only requires removal of the urinal in the men's room , re-installation of the shower, and repair of an electric heater.

Jim Warfield is now working with a consultant regarding the club's tax structure. This advisor has requested financial records for the previous 4 years, the club's articles of incorporation and by-laws.

Raiel Wilson is deployed to Kuwait and will be there for another 6 – 9 months. Her mailing address is: Sr. Airman Reial Wilson, 386 ESFS/FP, APO, AE 09855.

NEW BUSINESS

An announcement for the winter workshop of the Washington Historical Gun makers Guild was read. A copy is included herein.

Jim Warfield reported that the sundry items that were brought to the November meeting have been sent to Raiel Wilson by Bud Maune.

Discussion regarding the selection of club officers for 2008. This "slate of officers" is required to be published in the November news letter, prior to the December vote. Because this was overlooked by the Secretary, it was M/S/A to postpone the election until the January meeting. President Greg Field, Vice President Andy Williamson, Secretary Steve Baima and Treasurer Lee Johnson have all agreed to run for another term. The slate of candidates for trustee positions are Vern Steward, Ed Ingoldsby, Margert Evensen, Joe Schroeder, Jerry Jazbec and Chuck Lacher.

The annual banquet will be held this year at the Golden Steer Restaurant in Kent, January 19th at 5 P.M. $600 has been allocated for door prizes. Margret Evanson and Jim Warfield will purchase the door prizes.

Additional Gun Show report from Chairman Bud Maune:

The show application has been filed with the fairgrounds and the deposit paid. The setup is to be the same as the 2007 show with our option to add some outside demonstration space if we have need of it. The advertising is paid and scheduled to run as Dennis had planned earlier. Our gun show liability insurance rider will be renewed prior to the show along with the clubs general liability insurance. Every member is encouraged to plan at least one full day working the show. If you have not worked the show before, you will be teamed up with a seasoned worker. We need every member's help at the show. Sign up with the various coordinators, Vern Steward, Daytime Security, Lee Johnson, Gate and gun tie, Bud Maune, club table and Ian Dunleavy, Night Security. Members are also needed to work on Friday, March 7th to help with the setup, wrangle tables and chairs and generally help the traders settle in.
