LEGISLATIVE: Not much discussion this month. Local advocate (Dave Workman) from 2nd Amendment Foundation and CCRKBA keeps us up to date on latest information.

WSMLA. Black powder shotgun championship matches did not take place this year due to lack of participants. See the WSMLA at <http://www.wamuzzleloaders.org/events>.

You can provide your input to anyone, at any level of government. You only need to provide your name and address. This cuts down on prank e-mails.

RENDEZVOUS: Margret passed out announcements for the pacific Primitive for 2010. See some information attached.

LAND: No research has been done this month.

RANGEMASTER: Reported in the news letter. 25 Turkeys have been ordered for the November monthly shoot.

GUN SHOW: Reminder, that we will be stuffing envelopes at our October meeting for the 2010 gun show. Our start time is an hour earlier than normal meetings. That makes it 7:00 PM or 19:00 hours. Pizza and soft drinks will be served.

Bud presented the budget for the 2010 gun show. A 5 percent admissions tax must now be collected at the gate. As a result, we must use a "turn style" at the show, to record the count, or a 2-part ticket. Bud will check on the availability of the 2 part tickets through the fair grounds.

Jerry Jazbec announced that the Boy Scout Camp will have 36 beds available during the show - 20 in on building and 16 in another. He is the point of contact to reserve one.

John Abbott said that anyone who will be staying in an RV at the fair grounds must register with him.

LAND: Nothing to report this month.

OLD BUSINESS

A letter from Raiel Wilson was read, thanking Cascade Mountain Men for their donation of shooting supplies and accoutrements. Bud moved to waive dues for Cindy Boyd for this year. 2nd/Approved.

Reported on BBQ at the home of Steve Baima. Everyone thanked Greg Field for picking up Ted Fellowes and bringing him. Left over steaks will be given away as prizes at the Sunday shoot.

Bud and Harry Charowski volunteered for the "volunteer Expo" in Bothell on August 30th. Harry brought his display of primitive artifacts. They passed out brochures regarding Cascade Mountain Men club.

NEW BUSINESS

John Abbott suggested that we make our reservations for the restraint for the annual awards banquet. It will be at the Golden Steer, unless there is a change announced later. We need to Contact Lee Johnson to determine the normal attendance numbers. Lee - please help. Thanks.

Volunteers for 2010 officer positions are being requested. Candidates must be introduced in November. Board of Trustees are the nominating committee, Joe Schroeder is the chairperson.

Correspondence

Good of the Order

Joe Schroeder noted that he read an article in a recent black powder shooter publication. He said that Steve Morris from Eatonvill placed first at Raton (shooting competition) Steve has the display at our gun show "wide spot in the trail" and displays all of his collection of Ted Fellowes firearms. Congratulations Steve.

John Abbott has volunteered to host a "corporate shoot" at the Seattle Trap & Skeet Club, for members of the Cascade Mountain Men. This will be for husbands, wives and children. He recommends a spring or summer time event. John said that he could arrange for instructors if they are needed.

Laurie is (still) always searching for information for the newsletter for the Issaquah Sportsmen's club. She said that she could use articles related to black powder shooting.

Andy Williamson's ticket was drawn for the door prize. Dale Black's name was drawn for the carry over prize, but he was not present.

Questions or comments regarding information in this newsletter may be directed to the secretary. Phone or E-mail please (425) 865-8965 or percman48@comcast.net.

It is noted in this news letter that one requirement of membership to Cascade Mountain Men is outlined in Article V of our Bylaws, which states: Membership in good standing, in any one of the National Rifle Association, the National Muzzle Loading Rifle Association, or the Washington State Muzzle Loading Association shall be a prerequisite for membership in CMM. Please provide the secretary with your membership information in any of the above organizations. Thank you.
