

The Journal of the Cascade Mountain Men Dec. 2003

December's another important meeting for the CMM because that's when we'll be electing officers and trustees for the upcoming year. Take an active interest in your club by helping elect the right people to run the club.

Better yet, step up and run for one of these positions. In general, those running for the 2004 positions have served multiple terms in the past and would be glad to let someone else participate.

Here's a list of the candidates: Bud has agreed to serve as President again. John Abbott has agreed to stay on as Treasurer. I'll serve as Secretary, unless someone else wants to. We don't have anyone for Vice-President yet, so we're hoping someone will step up at the meeting and volunteer.

Also, the following members have agreed to run for the trustee positions: Doug Bennett, Bob Bowman, Jerry Jazbec, Vern Steward, and Jim Warfield. If anyone else wants to run, show up at the December meeting and throw your hat in the ring.

Plan Now to Volunteer
March 13-14 for the Show

The CMM Muzzleloading Arms and Pioneer Craft Show is our one fundraiser all year, and we all reap the benefits at the shoots, the free dinners, and at all our events, which are funded by the proceeds of the show. We need and expect every member to help.

We also have two important captain's positions that still need filling: Day Security and Night Security. If you have any interest in running either of these security positions, contact President Bud, who's coordinating the whole show.

Even if you don't want to be a captain, we need you to help the club make the show a success.

And unless you want to tangle with Big John, a half day isn't enough. We need everyone to work at least one whole day's shift, and preferably a whole day for both March 13 and 14. You have the dates, so plan now to have the time off from work and other commitments. Too few of the members have been doing too much of the work for too long. It's time they got some help. Call Bud at 425 392-2308 and volunteer to do your part.

Very Sad News

Most of you have probably heard by now that longtime CMM member Mike Wasil passed away in mid-November from a sudden heart attack. We'll miss him!

Carryover Prize

Sean Wolf's number was picked in the November carryover-prize drawing. Unfortunately, he wasn't at the meeting, so he missed out on the $50 prize. You can avoid a similar fate by joining us at the meetings.

2nd Annual Camp Logan Days Living History Reenactment

The following notice came in via the CMM website and may be of interest to some of our members:

"Did you know that at Camp Logan there was an officer who was an author? How about that there was an officer who came to Grant County who was later at the Battle of the Little Big Horn? Camp Logan was a military post close to present day Prairie City and was established between 1863 and 1865 by the First Oregon Volunteers and then later occupied by the regular army. It remained until 1869. Camp Logan was part of the Department of the Columbia that consisted of the State of Oregon, Washington Territory and Idaho Territory and the Territory of Alaska was added in 1870. Other posts in the Department included Camp Watson and Fort Klamath to name a few. The Headquarters was at Fort Vancouver.

"These topics and more will be relived on Saturday and Sunday, May 22-23, 2004 when the 2nd annual Camp Logan Living History Reenactment occurs near Prairie City, Oregon. You will have the opportunity to step back in time and relive the year 1867 and see what life was like at the military camp.

"For more information contact Dianne Lesniak or Andy Demko at Prairie City School at (541) 820-3314.
